The Cat: Chapter 1

By: Adam Weisbrod

Once upon a time there was a cat and his two friends that were aliens. The aliens were so nice to the cat.

First, one day when the cat and his friends were preparing to set the ship for take-off the look disappeared, and the weird look was not a good guy. Also, you can guess what “it” was. That weird looks home was CPS. CPS was a true meanie and a bossy woman, and CPS has a whole army. When he shot his SPC gun the two alien friends turned into bad guys, and then they became part of his army. Then cat turned into a bad guy. Mr. Cat broke the alien’s bracelets and the bad butterfly came out. They caught it in a net and then they killed it. Mr. Cat was still a bad guy and the two aliens were good guys. The cat had a fire sticking out of his shirt so they had to use strong cataclysm to destroy the fire made to get cat’s bracelet. After that, they took cat’s bracelet and broke it and the butterfly came out. They got a net and then they killed it. Then the ship took off and then they travelled to alien world. They went in a circle and the alien scanner scanned them, and then they were totally good to go into alien world. It is dangerous in alien world because the witch in alien world and her whole army threw potions at the two aliens and cat. When the head witch of the army threw it, it almost touched the ship, but they were fine. Then the ship threw a bomb aiming right at the witches bracelets. The bomb hit all of the witches bracelets and ten million thousand butterflies came out of the witches bracelets, including the head witches bracelet which had one hundred million butterflies. Luckily they had enough space in the net to catch all the butterflies. Then the head witch and her whole army disappeared into the alien night. They lived happily ever after.
