“Sucking the Lifeblood of Camp Manitou”

Ed. 2 July 10th 2019

News Update

Aaron Entebi

Sports

In Manitou sports news, our first intercamps were this week! In the MHL, the Tough Cookies lost to the Napkins, 2-0, it was a really close game. Remember every day at O&A to go watch the games at hockey.

Weather

The weather has been hot these last few days but don't worry, we are going to have really cool weather the next few days.

Letter from the Editor

Greetings Camp Manitou! I can't believe we're already publishing our second edition of the summer. Up at Radio/Newspaper, we've been having the time of our lives covering all the exciting happenstances around camp, whether on the air or here in the mosquito. This week, our team has not only excelled in their journalism, but have experimented and pushed the limits of the form. So while what you are about to read might shock you, we ask you to keep an open mind. So get ready to confront the enfants terrible of reporting, the most daring minds of a new generation of writers, printed on these hallowed pages.

Robbie Dryer,
Editor in Chief

International Campers and Staff

By Aaron Entebi

As you may know, there a tons of international campers and staff at this camp. They come from countries such as: Mexico, USA, Spain, Australia and more. I think Manitou is a place where everyone can come together to play or act, and I think that that's what makes camp camp. The diversity here is immense. That's why I love Camp Manitou

Sleepy Sleep In

By Stella Katz

It was Thursday morning and I woke up at 6:58 am. My two friends Stella and LJ were outside playing top trump. I stayed in bed for a while, when I got out of bed my whole cabin was awake! Right away our counsellors woke up. Oh my! The end!

Fireside

By Cooper Pantel

So fireside was great this week. The speaker was very good. I liked his story about needing to pee. My counsellor won a candle, which was very cool (shout out to Daniel Diamond and all the candle winners). The speaker gave an important message about how jokes can hurt people's feelings. I hope everyone will take this to heart.

Another Great Week of Camp

By Lanny Foster

Hey pals, it's me Lanny Foster, here after another banner week of camp! This week has been chockfull of treats & fun times for all. We had a great speaker at fireside, he was smart, funny, and he rapped: it was like Jerry Seinfeld, Eminem and Albert Einstein rolled into one! Then we had the talent show, and there are so many talented kids, my jaw was on the floor! I've been having a blast at all my activities, this week I tried baseball with Jacob and I'm a chimney sweep in Mary Poppins, directed by Miranda Wiseman. I've been jumping in the lake on hot, hot days, but don't worry, Dale, only when supervised by a lifeguard. (Dale is my mommy). Well, pals, I'm to learn some new dances moves from my friend Edyn, but I'll see you all again next week.

"Designer" Babies!?

By Bayla Appleby

I guess you're wondering what a "designer" baby is. A "designer" baby is a baby that is genetically modified (using CRISPR-Cas9 or another gene-editing tool) to their parents'/guardians' liking. This means that they can choose their physical appearance as well as making them immune to certain diseases, illnesses, infections, and disorders. If you are scared and/or worried about this, you don't need to worry because using gene-editing tools on humans is illegal. However, gene-editing tools such as CRISPR-Cas9 were created to cure diseases such as Cystic Fibrosis, or CF. CRISPR-Cas9 is still being tested on rats and mice

Fireside

By Aaron Entebi

As we know, fireside is a place where all the campers and staff go every Friday night.

Every fireside a speaker comes and talks about something important or about a problem in the world. This last fireside, the speaker was Anthony, an adult who talked about bullying and the talks he does at schools. He also told us that he was bullied when he was little and that he was speaking because he didn't want that to happen at Manitou. One of the other things he said was that he makes raps when he is stressed or sad or maybe afraid.

What I learned about Anthony is that everyone should be respected equally all around Manitou and the world. It doesn't matter if they like different sports, if they are from a different religion or if they have a different colour of skin then you, everyone should be respected equally.

As Anthony spoke, everyone was quiet, listening, paying attention so I thought to myself: wow! Maybe he is making a change and all the fights and bullying will disappear. So my reflection at the end is that fireside is a really special, unique moment we only have once a week and we should be grateful for that

Some Better Names for Things

By Brian Ebata

Ever notice how you sometimes hear the word for a thing and you're like what's that? We here at the mosquito have some recommendations for some new names and words that are much clearer:

Milk: cow juice

Nectarine: smooth peach

Music: wavy air

Sand: grainy rocks

Ketchup: tomato smoothie

Lemon: pain orange

Paper: tree slice

Water: blue wet

Door: sometimes window

Like: Diet Love

Horoscopes:

By Talia Ross-Wittenberg

Aries: How do you like goats?

Taurus: charge at anything red

Gemini: You were born in June or May so you love the fall

Cancer: you are secretly a crab

Leo: Roar

Virgo: "Hey do you want to Virgo to the store?"

Libra: Libration

Scorpio: Don't sting anyone

Sagittarius: The hardest sign to spell!

Capricorn: Try something new

Aquarius: There is a band named after you

Pisces: "Want a Pisces of pizza?"

Bad Jokes

By Carter Murphy

Q: What do you call a baby cow?

A: Baby cow

Q: What do aliens eat in outer space?

A: Mars Bars

Q: Why did the rooster cross the road?

A: To get to the chicken on the other side

Q: Why did the chicken cross the road?

A: She just wanted to
